

For your home learning this week you will need to complete the activities in the shaded boxes and choose 2 more one needs to be digital and the other non digital (In your books) . Remember that you also need to read to yourself or an adult each night.

 YOUR CHOICE! Create your one of you own home learning tasks for this week. Think about how you can make connections to what we are learning in class.	 Spring has arrived for many around the world on March 20th. What happens during this time?	THAI HOME LEARNING Complete the activity that has been shared with you for your Thai homework.
Persuasive Writing What's My Age Again? Is it better to be a child, a teenager, or an adult? What are the benefits of each age? What are the drawbacks? Support your position with stories from your own life as well as facts and details drawn from the lives of others.	UOI ACTIVITY Decomposition Inquiry: What a load of old Rubbish!  Pumpkin decomposition Have some fun this week creating your own decomposition experiment. Check out the links below for some ideas. Decomposition Decomposition	MENTAL MATH ACTIVITY Times tables games link Multiplication games
WRITING International Day of Action for the Seals  22nd March 2021 It is a day to promote awareness and to stop cruelty against seal populations around the world. What animal would you like to promote awareness for and why?	READING World Poetry Day Yesterday Sunday 21st March was World Poetry Day. It is a time for us to appreciate and celebrate poets and poetry from around the world. What are your favourite poems or poets?  Check out some poems on Epic!	HOME LANGUAGE In your own (Mother Tongue) language, discuss what is a decomposition and come up with your own definition.

REFLECTIONS:

My favourite activity this week was...

because...

Parents/Caregivers have your say:

